

Author Biography: Dr. Mihai Murariu (WWU Münster)

The author has defended his PhD at the Graduate School of Politics, WWU Münster, titled “Totality, Charisma, Authority. The Origins and Transformations of Totalist Heterodoxies”. He has studied at WWU Münster, Institute of Political Science – in association with the Faculty of European Studies, Babes-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, also studying Applied Modern Languages at Babes-Bolyai University. He has published academic articles on political spatiality, eschatology, utopia, and modern totalist movements. Research interests include totalism, totalitarianism, ideology and religion. The author has published three non-academic prose books and many articles in cultural magazines. He is a member of the Writers’ Union of Romania.